Gentlemen:

Your favor, together with the coins, at hand and many thanks for sending these.

We are enclosing $3.00 in American money, 70¢ of which we owe you. With the balance, $2.30, we wish you would pick up some of the more recent regular issues. I am enclosing rubbings of those we have; also indicated against the rubbings those we have of the same type but of smaller denominations. Anything not represented here we would be glad to have you send us. You will note we lack the 1000 and the 400 reis of the 1900 commemorative issue. Will you let us know whether the coins you just sent us, also the Gomez and the Caxias were for regular use or were they strictly commemoratives, with only a limited issue.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Gentlemen:

Your registered letter of April 17th came to hand about a week ago. It however did not include the three coins you said you sent. As far as we could see the envelope had not been tampered with. We have withheld writing you until now as we were hoping that the coins would reach here in another letter - possibly you overlooked placing the coins in the envelope. If so, will you look the matter up. If you did put them in the original registered letter, you will have to make a claim at your end.

In the meantime we wish you would duplicate this order as we desire to get the three coins which you claim you sent as soon as possible. The Order Number is No. 17374.

You can also send us the 500 reis piece of 1852 which you list at 13¢, as well as the proof for 400 reis, price of which is $2.20.

With your permission I will hold payment on this as well as the $1.20 which we owe you on the last bill until we hear from you.

Also, if there are any 1837 coins issued, please send specimens along.

I remain,

Very truly yours,

Curator
